Loco pilots meet Rahul in Parl, air grievances

New Delhi: Leader of opposition in the Lok Sabha, Rahul Gandhi, on Wednesday met a delegation of loco pilots in the Parliament House complex and took them to meet railway minister Ashwini Vaishnav to address their problems.

During the meeting loco pilots raised their issues and Vaishnav gave details of the steps taken to improve the work conditions of pilots, which "pleasantly surprised" the Congress leader, sources said.

"It was good meeting. The minister listened to their concerns and assured them to take necessary steps. He shared how all the 558 running rooms for loco pilots across the country are air-conditioned and 7,000 locos have AC cabs. The loco pilots agreed that there has been remarkable improvement. But there is a need to do more," said an official.

Videos posted by the Congress party on its social media handle also featured some of the loco pilots talking about "fruitful" meeting with the minister and they expected the govt to address their issues.

Earlier, Gandhi also posted a video of his meeting with the loco pilots in which they are seen airing their grievances such as long duty hours, lack of toilets and tough working conditions.
