The General Manager,
Southern Railway,
Chennai.

Respected Sir,

Sub : Show cause notice served to Sri.R.K.Unnikrishnan, SS/MJS/PGT – reg.

It is sad to bring to your kind notice that in all over India employees are frustrated and agitated against the Government's decision of sending the employees on compulsory retirement at the age of 55 yrs or completion of 30 yrs of service whichever is earlier. It is seen that many places administration may victimize the employees. We would like to bring to your kind notice that Sri.R.K.Unnikrishnan, Station Superintendent/ MJS / PGT was served with show cause notice for sending on compulsory retirement under Rule 1802 (copy enclosed for ready reference).

It is also pertinent to mention that when employee gave voluntary retirement, his request was not considered by Sr.DOM / PGT without any valid reason. We do not understand why he was served with show cause notice all of the sudden. No doubt it is a clear case of vindictive. 3 times he was qualified in written examination for Group B post. How he was termed as poor performer.

We therefore request you to kindly stop the above proposal of compulsory retirement.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

(P.S.Suriyaprakasam)
