To
The Chief Personnel Officer,
Southern Railway,
Chennai.

Sir,

Sub : Synopsis of problems facing by Ex-servicemen in Southern Railway.

You are aware that the Ex-servicemen have already served in the army to safeguard our Nation. They have put in more than 15 to 25 years of service in the Defence at National Borders leaving their family and children. Now, the present posting order again separated from their family at the age of 45 to 55 years and the Ex-servicemen are facing the following problems.

- 1) The fixation of their pay has not been done as per Railway Board order. Despite several representations no action was taken.
- 2) The Ex-servicemen were not posted as per the choice.
- 3) The request for unit transfer of Ex-servicemen were not considered.
- 4) Priority for request transfer, priority for quarters allotment were not considered.
- 5) Change of category were not considered.
- 6) Inter Divisional Transfers were not considered.
- 7) Relaxation of conditions for considering GDCE / LDCE Exams were not considered.
- 8) The Ex-servicemen were not treated respectfully. Their sacrifice and grievances were not considered by Divisions.

We therefore request you to kindly take suitable action please.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

(P.S.Suriyaprakasam)
